

PAST. PRESENT. FUTURE.

Why Celebrate?

The Hebrew word "Yachad" means "together." The word signifies a sense of community and belonging, a commitment to working as individuals within a group toward common values and goals. Yachad implies that the most important human accomplishments are achieved "together" with one another in harmony and with purpose.

Yachad: The Capital Campaign (our past), offered an opportunity to join forces to build a new school on the South-Side of Chicago that made it possible for the school to thrive for many years to come. This meant that students in the lower grades would complete their schooling with more classmates in first-rate facilities that enhance the quality of instruction (our present). It means that alumni will be assured that their own children and grandchildren can get a fully contemporary schooling dedicated to the qualities and values for which Akiba-Schechter is known. It means that more students will have an opportunity to attend the school, and that Jewish day school education will continue to have a sterling model of Jewish educational excellence and diversity (our future).

In the process of building a new school with the enthusiasm and cooperation of everyone who believes in Jewish education, together we have built a stronger community among ourselves--parents, alumni, friends, students, and neighbors.

Together we built a future for Akiba-Schechter. On March 14, we honor those who made it happen:
Drs. Amy Kenter & Michael Shapiro, Stephen Molasky and Ruth O'Brien

INSPIRE. CHALLENGE. NURTURE.

At Akiba-Schechter Jewish Day School it is our privilege to Inspire, Challenge, and Nurture children from wide-eyed 2 year olds to inquisitive 14 year-olds and everybody in between. We believe that youth is precious and that growth cannot be rushed. Since 1949 we have served Hyde Park, metropolitan Chicago, Skokie and Northwest Indiana, providing exceptional pre-school through 8th grade education.

Akiba-Schechter is affiliated with the Associated Talmud Torahs and Community Foundation for Jewish Education of Metropolitan Chicago. Akiba-Schechter is a Beneficiary Agency of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago supported by the Jewish United Fund. Akiba-Schechter is also supported by the Kehillah Fund for Day School education.
